

Goodwyn IRB announces that William Dirkes, MD, MBA, has accepted the position of Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Dr. Dirkes is responsible for operations and new business development, and will play an integral role in the strategic development of Goodwyn IRB. With Dr. Dirkes' assistance, we will continue to achieve our mission to protect human subjects and foster the positive work environment and spirit of operation with colleagues, employees, investigators, research sponsors, and oversight agencies for which Goodwyn IRB has become known.
